

Independent Study Title	The Need of Information and Information Services of Students with Learning Disabilities at Matthayom Phrarachatanchoemphrakiat School, Nan Province
Author	Miss Kamonmard Harnyuth
Degree	Master of Arts (Information Studies)
Independent Study Advisor	Assoc. Prof. Tasana Saladyanant

ABSTRACT

This study was a survey research with the objectives of to studying the needs for information and services of students with learning disabilities at Matthayom Phrarachatanchoemphrakiat School, Nan Province, and finding a guideline to provide information and information services appropriate to the students needs. The population were 14 students with learning disabilities in Matthayom Phrarachatanchoemphrakiat school, Mathayomsueksa 2 and 3, in the academic year 2010. Questionnaires and interviews were used in data collecting. Data were analyzed by using frequency, percentage and descriptive analysis.

The results of the study were as follow :

Students needed information resources in the form of non printed materials and equipments such as CD-ROM readers and DVD, images, computer, CD-ROM and DVD respectively ; printed material were : 1) books on novels, tales, science and mathematics in the form of comics in a concise format, 2) journals and magazine on sciences, tourism, sports, mathematics, agriculture, arts and clothing, 3) newspapers on sports. The information services they wanted were : teaching or lesson on how to use electronic services, computer and internet services, reading promotion services, such as storytelling from tales and books as well as exhibition.