ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I sincerely acknowledge the help, co-operation and support of many individuals and organizations in the whole study process and the completion of this research.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation, gratitude and respect to Mr. Phrek Gypmantasiri, my academic - thesis advisor and the chairman of my thesis committee for his valuable supports, guidance, encouragements and stimulating suggestion in the whole process of the study that enabled me to complete this thesis.

My profound gratitude goes to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboongongse, Dr. Sakda Jongkaewattana and Dr. Methi Ekasingh, committee members for their valuable advices and constructive criticisms which made this thesis more readable.

I wish to thank all staff members of the Agricultural Systems Program who provided various forms of assistance. Specially, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Benjavan Rerkasem, the Chairman of the Program for her valuable supports; Ms. Nuansri Likit - Anurucks for facilitating the official documents and Ms. Malinee Radanachaless for managing the financial documents.

It is a pleasure to thank all of my Vietnamese friends (De, Phu, Wel, Dung, Dac, Tam, Huyen, and Ms. Kinh), my classmates and colleagues, particularly Miss. Somchit and Mr. Tospol for their helpful assistance and friendly mental support.

Sincere thanks are also extended to the staff of The Mekong Delta Farming Systems Research and Development Center and Faculty of Fisheries of University of Cantho for their helps. Particularly, thanks are due to Mr. Duong, Mr. Tuan, Sanh, Thuong, Can for their kindness: Dung and Khoi for managing the experimental process; Phuong and Binh for their comment; Dung, Long, Huong for their help in the laboratory; Mr. Nhan and his family for cooperating the field work in his field.

I would also like to express my deep appreciation to Prof. Dr. Vo-Tong Xuan, Vice Rector of University of Cantho for finding the scholarship fund, his valuable guidance and encouragement and Mr. and Mrs. Minh Kauffman, Co-Directors of The Center for Educational Exchange Programs for their kindness.

My study could not be successfully completed without financial support from Oxfam America and Christopher Reynolds Foundation. My special gratitude is given for that. I also thank Mrs. Daisy J. Leyva and Mr. Michael H. Call, Southeast Asia Representative of Oxfam America for their devoted and warm concerns.

Finally, the encouragement from my mother and special support and love from my wife caused me to achieve the success for my graduate study in Thailand.
