ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am greatly pleased to extend profound gratitude to all the faculty members of AGS program, Chiang Mai University who provided knowledge, experience and invaluable support in the whole process of my graduate study.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere appreciation and respect to Asst. Prof. Dr. Attachai Jintrawet, my academic advisor as well as chairperson of my thesis academic committee for his continuous and immeasurable guidance, constructive comments, and genuine help not only in academic field but also to solve other problems that came up during the course of the study.

I am also grateful to other member of thesis advisory committee, Asst. Prof. Dr. Sunthorn Buranaviriyakul, Ms. Kuson Thong-Ngam and Dr. Preecha Prammanee for their invaluable suggestions and constructive comments.

All lectures and staffs of Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), Faculty of Agriculture, Chiang Mai University, whose co-operation, sharing knowledge, experience and services during the study period help to complete my study successfully. I am sincerely pleased to express thanks and gratitude to all of them. Special thanks go to the Ford Foundation for providing financial support for my graduate work.

It is greatly pleased to thank to Mr. Nguyen Ngoc De, Deputy Director of Mekong Delta Farming System Research and Development Institute and Mr. Nguyen Quang Tuyen, Head of Farming System Division who introduced and encouraged me to study at MCC, Chiang Mai University. My hearty thanks and respect go to Mr. Le Thanh Duong, Vice Head of Training and Extension Division for his support and encouragement. Thanks go to Mr. Dung, Vice Head of Farming System Division, Mr. Tuan, Mr. Huu, Mr. Tam, and Mr. Thanh for their help in surveying at Tan Phu Thanh Village. Deepest gratitude to farmers in Tan Phu Thanh village who shared their experiences and contributed important information on rice production for this study. We would like to thank them.

I am very much delighted to pay thanks for the warm and cordial friendship provided by all AGS students. My hearty thanks and appreciation go to all oversea Vietnamese, especially to Mr. Chinh, Mrs. Van and Mr. Huynh for their genuine help during two years ago. I am blessed with love, understanding, encouragement of my sweetheart, Do Bich Diem, who is my great source of inspiration and dedication.

Finally, special gratitude belongs to respectful parents (Le Duc Hien and Vo Thi Bay), my old sisters and bothers, young bother and young sister whose support and encouragement led me to complete this study.
