ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly pleased to extend my profound gratitude to people and institutions that have helped in the completion of my graduate studies for M.S. in Agricultural Systems at Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), Chiang Mai University.

First and foremost, My respectful acknowledgement and deepest thanks to my Ajarn Assoc. Prof. Dr. Attachai Jintrawet, my academic and thesis advisor and chairman of my thesis examining committee, for his invaluable guidance, encouragement, understanding and stimulating suggestions from the beginning to the end of my study.

I am greatly indebted to other members of academic advisory committee and examining committee, Ajarn Asst. Prof. Dr. Sunthorn Buranaviriyakul, Ajarn Asst. Prof. Dr. Sakda Jongkaewwattana, and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Suwit Laohasiriwong for their great guidance, kindness, invaluable suggestions, and constructive comments.

My special thanks to all respected academic faculty members of the Agricultural Systems Program for providing interesting and useful lectures. I also would like to express my thanks to Khun Worluk, the Secretary of MCC for her special help and kindness. I would also like to thank other MCC staff for their kind help.

Extremely great thanks go to the Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation (DTEC), Thailand for providing financial support throughout my graduate study.

My thanks are also expressed to the leaders and my colleagues of the Hue University of Agriculture and Forestry (HUAF). It is greatly pleased to thank to Prof. Dr. Tran Van Minh, rector of HUAF, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Phan Hoa, vice rector of HUAF, and Mr. Duong Viet Tinh, Dean of faculty of Forestry of HUAF for their support, encouragement, and letters of recommendation. My hearty thank and respect go to Dr. Le Van An, Head of Department of research management and international relation affairs of HUAF, and Mrs. Nguyen Thi Thanh, vice head of Department of research management and international relation affairs of HUAF who introduced and encouraged me to study at MCC, Chiang Mai university.

Special thanks go to Mr. Tran Huu Banh, Head of Department of Forestry Development of Thua Thien Hue, Mr. Tran Minh Duc, deputy dean of faculty of forestry of HUAF, Mr. Mai Quang Huy, officer of Department of forestry protection of Thua Thien Hue, Dr. Ho Kiet, and Dr. Tran Manh Dat, who provided the ideas, invaluable comments, and valuable secondary data to enable me to fulfill my thesis.

I would like to thank all my classmates (Mr. Bhim Raj Gurung, Mr Dophu Dukpa, Mr. Kailash Pradhan, Mr. Hasta Bahadur Bista, Mr. Bhawani P. Mishra, Mrs. Cooray N. V. Kumadunie, Mr. Peiris C. Pattiyage, Mr. Wattana Pattanathavorn, Mr. Rasmey Hay, and Mr. Ngo Tung Duc) and AGS friends for their substantial help, nice hospitality, and for sharing their experiences. Many thanks go to overseas Vietnamese for their kindness, support, sharing joyful moments, and necessary help.

Finally, and most of all, I owe my deepest thanks to my respectful father, my parents-in-law for their love and encouragement, and their support of my educational advancement. I am blessed with the love, understanding, and encouragement of my wife, Nguyen Thi Thuong, who has been without me during her pregnancy, has been my great source of inspiration, and dedication. My deepest love to my son, Ho Khac Nhat Huy who was born and grew up without my care. Special appreciation goes to Mrs. Ho Thi Thanh Nga, my younger sister, who helped me to edit and correct English grammar for the thesis. Thanks are also due to my younger sister, younger brothers, sisters-in-law and brother-in-law for their encouragement and their help.
