Acknowledgement

I would like to acknowledge the support of several people and institutions that contributed to the completion of my Masters Program at the Chiang Mai University in Thailand.

First, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to my thesis and academic advisor, Associate Professor Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh, for all her support, encouragement, and excellent supervision in the process of designing and writing this research paper. I am highly grateful to her for making the farm record keeping data available for my research.

Many thanks are also due for my committee members, Lect. Dr. Methi Ekasingh, Lect. Dr. Jirawan Kitchaicharoen, and Assist. Prof. Dr. Manu Seetisarn for their kind support and valuable comments.

It is my great pleasure to thank to all lecturers of Multiple Cropping Center, Faculty of Agriculture, Chiang Mai University who shared knowledge and experiences to complete my study successfully. My sincere appreciation goes to Ajarn Phrek for all the support, care and guidance. I am also thankful to Ms. Worluck Suteerawantana (Khun Om) for her kind helpfulness to all the students in every aspect on the administrative matter.

I would like to express my gratitude to Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, and Fisheries, Royal Government of Cambodia for allowing me to pursue my study in Thailand. My personal appreciation goes to my Director of Oddor Meanchey Provincial Department of Agriculture, Forestry, and Fisheries, Mr. Pen Marardi, for his kindness in allowing me to take up this study.

I would like to acknowledge and thank my sponsor, the Rockefeller Foundation, for granting the scholarship throughout my graduate study. I also would like to thank all the surveyed farmers of Koh Thom district for providing me with the information regarding maize production. Without their support, this research would not have been possible.

I am thankful to senior friends Rasmeay, Kumudu, Kailash, Bhim, Dophu, Peris, Bawani, Bista, Ha, Duc, my classmates Khaing Khaing, Yadu, Rajendra, Poch, Thanid and junior friends Duc, Manjula, Hanh, Long, Soe Ma Ma and Wilawan for their cooperation and immense help during my study period. To all the others in Thailand and in Cambodia, the author would like to extend her sincere gratitude, Chou Kuy, Wanvilai Julapan, Vathana, Khuoch, Neng, Thananun, Mountha, Karno, Sythoun, Dyna, Sophy, Sophal, Pektry, Hun, Mom, Chiven, Dary, Sopheap, Syneng, Net and Lina.

Many thanks to Mr. Khay Sathya and Dr. Chea Sareth, Cambodian Agricultural Research and Development Institute's researchers, for all the helpful, encouragement, and guidance.

The last but not the least, I am blessed with love, patience, inspiration and encouragement of my parents Mr Bun Chun, Mrs Mean Hieng, all of my sisters and brothers, and relatives.
