This is to pledge my sincere gratitude to the Sri Lanka government and department of agriculture for providing me the opportunity to learn for this masters' degree, the Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA) for the financial support, and all the institutions and individuals involved for enabling the study happen.

It is a privilege for me to have Dr. Kamol Ngamsomsuke as my thesis advisor and I am highly indebted to him for his enthusiastic, invaluable and professional guidance and encouragement for this study, even at odd hours. I am grateful to Asst. Prof. Dr. Chanchai Sangchyoswat, the member of my thesis advisory committee for his invaluable guidance and support through out this study. Further, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for providing valuable comments and suggestions, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Attachai Jintrawat, and Ajarn Phrek Gypmantasiri. I am thankful to Dr. Methi Ekasingh my external examiner for valuable comments. Thanks are due to all administrative staff, especially Ms. Woraluck Suteerawantana (Khun Om) and Ms. Chatnapa Prommanon for providing a homely environment and timely logistical support during the course of study.

For my field works, a number of institutions and individuals deserved a rightful mention. I am thankful to Provincial director of agriculture in north central province, assistant director of agriculture Mr. Sarath Pathirana, inter province deputy director of agriculture, assistant director of agriculture in farm machinery training center and all staff, assistant director of agriculture in school of agriculture Anuradhapura and all staff to providing facilities and information during my field work. I would like to thank all field officers of agrarian service and all field officers in department of agriculture in Anuradapura district (Province and inter province) to providing information and support during my field work.

Thanks are also due to all seniors, and juniors AGS friends and my classmates for their friendliness and cooperation. I am thankful to my parents, my wife Priyanthee and my two sons, Kushan and Dashun, all brothers and sisters, all in-laws, relatives and friends in Sri Lanka for their support and encouragement. This thesis is dedicated to my father and to my mother. I wish to thank everyone whose names could not be mentioned individually.
