I strongly believe that the role of international trade is crucial for a country's economic development. Cross border trade development is also an important early platform for the development of border areas of a country as well as regional economic integration. This thesis work is dedicated to the development of my country, Myanmar. It would not have been possible to write this thesis without the help and support of the kind people around me.

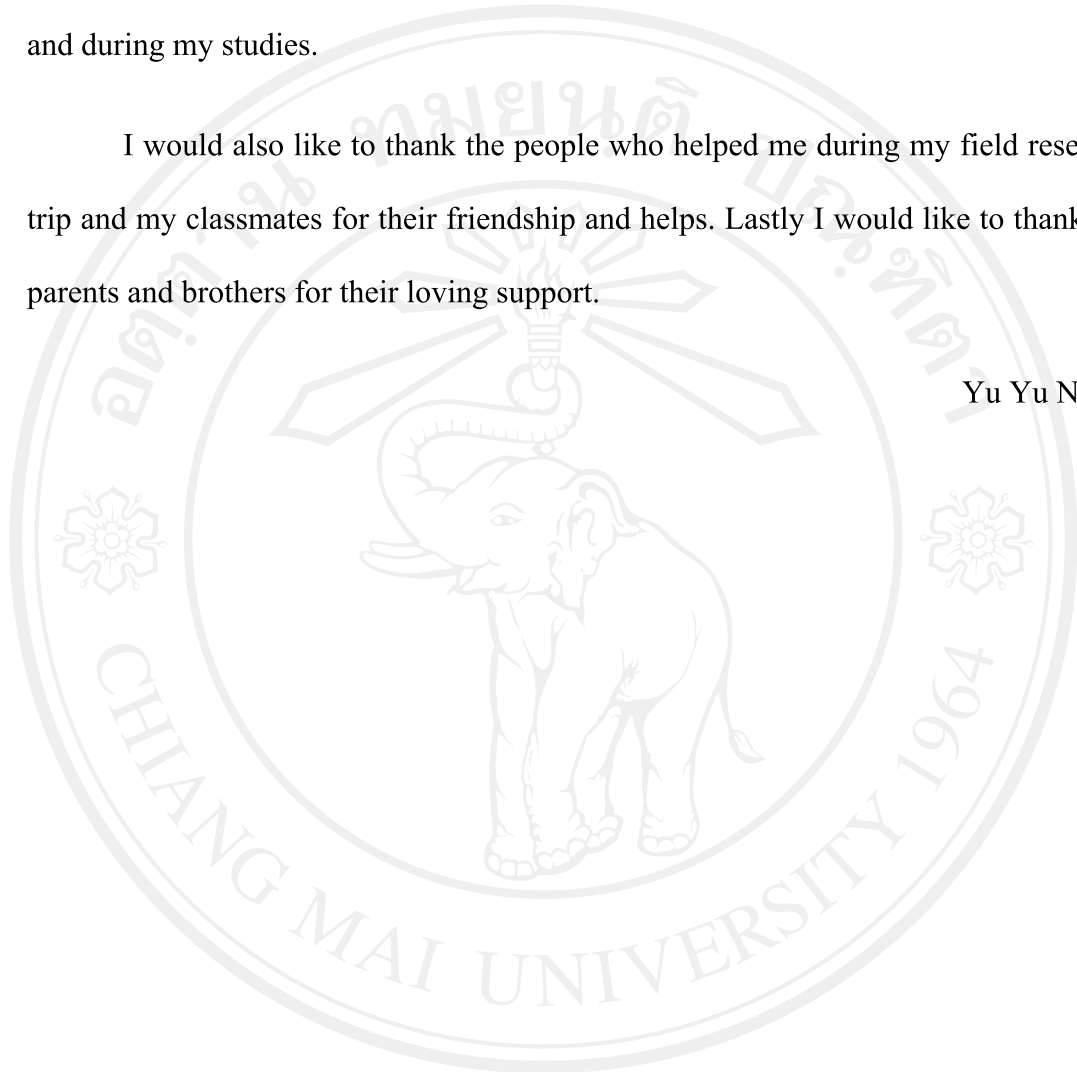

First of all, I owe my deepest gratitude to my principal supervisor Assoc. Prof. Dr. Luechai Chulasai for his teachings on international trade and his enormous amount of support during this research. I would like to thank my co-advisor Assit. Prof. Dr. Nisit Panthamit, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Kanchana Chokethaworn as Chairperson of thesis committee and Lect. Dr. Sangkom Suwanarat as external examiner are greatly appreciated for their valuable advice, comments and suggestions.

I would like to acknowledge the financial support of the Heinrich Boell Foundation. Without their support, I would not have done this study and thesis work. My special thanks go to Mr. Jost Pachaly, Mr. Rainer Einzenberger, Mr. Somyot Channa, Ms. Vorawan Wannalak and all the staff of Heinrich Boell Foundation in Thailand. I greatly appreciate their warm encouragements and assistance during this study.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. Zaw Oo and the Community Development and Civic Empowerment Program (CDCE) for their support throughout the years before and during my studies.

I would also like to thank the people who helped me during my field research trip and my classmates for their friendship and helps. Lastly I would like to thank my parents and brothers for their loving support.
