

Independent Study Title	Multigraded Teaching and Learning Under the Condition of Teacher Shortage at Bandonchai School
Author	Mr. Rangsak Muenhong
Degree	Master of Education (Curriculum and Instruction)
Independent Study Advisor	Asst. Prof. Dr. Jintana Sujjanan

ABSTRACT

The purposes of this study were 1) to study the pattern of teaching and learning in the multi-grade classes, and 2) achievement of grade 1-6 students in the academic year 2008-2009, and 3) opinion of teachers, students, parents and academy committee of Bandonchai School, Lampang Primary Educational Service Area Office 3 that teaching and learning in the multi-grade classes. Data were collected by observation and group interview after that analyzed in tables and description.

The results of this study were:

1. Bandonchai School are teaching and learning in the multi-grade classes, divided to 2 classes, 1-3 grade and 4-6 grade that teacher teach from lower subject matter to high level.
2. Achievement of students is the high level.
3. All of teachers, parents, students and academy committee have a positive feedback for plans, activities and classroom environment.