

Independent Study Title	State and Problems Related to Research Conducting for Professional Development of Thai Language Teachers at Varee Chiang Mai School
Author	Miss Tawanrat Thiprak
Degree	Master of Education (Teaching Thai)
Independent Study Advisor	Assoc. Prof. Sriwilai Ponmanee

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was to study state and problems related to research conducting for professional development of Thai language teachers at Varee Chiang Mai school. The population participated in the study was 20 Thai language teachers in Varee Chiang Mai school. The instrument used in the study was a questionnaire. The collected data were analyzed by computing frequencies, percentages, means and standard deviations.

The major findings were as follows :

1. The conditions of classroom research. As for the conducting of classroom research found that teacher did a research in class following the research process. As for the supporting in doing class research found that the school already has a policy in doing class research , arrange professional development in class research teachers have to fund themselves in class research , the school will provide computers. By using the classroom research found that Thai language teachers used and applied the research in the classroom for teaching development and problem solving .
2. Problems in conducting classroom research . The overview of classroom research from all the research points showed in medium level. The supports of the research showed in low level. By using the classroom research showed in medium level.