ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasure to extend my profound gratitude and respect to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboonpongse and Dr. Songsak Sribooncitta, my academic advisor for their intellectual stimulation, valuable advises and comments throughout my graduate study. I would also like to thank my thesis committee members, Asst. Prof. Dr Pattana Jierwiriysant and Dr. Kamol Namgsomsuke for their time and effort in reading and making suggestions for improving this thesis.

I would like to acknowledge to Ford Foundation, the Royal Project Foundation, and Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), which provide financial supports and allow me to use facilities throughout my study period. As an research assistance of Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboonpongse, I am thankful to the Royal Project Foundation, which provide financial support for this research. I wish to thank the students and staff of MCC for their collaboration and support. I also thankful to the Highland Plant Protection Center, the Royal Project Foundation for granting me a leave of absence to pleasure my graduate study.

All above these, I am blessed with love, patience and encouragement from my parents who are my source of inspiration and dedication. Also my brother and sister for their encouragement throughout my study.
