Acknowledgements

I would like to express my profound thanks to a number of persons and organizations for their cooperation, coordination, inspiration and support to complete my graduation with this valuable document in Chiang Mai University. I am indebted to all my teachers from primary education to now in Multiple Cropping Center for their efforts and inspiration in my educational carrier up to this end.

My sincere thanks are to all academic and administrative staffs of Multiple Cropping Center (MCC), who have provided me a homely and friendly environment during my study period in Chiang Mai University.

In particular, I am very grateful and indebted to my thesis advisor Dr. Chanchai Sangchyoswat for his continuous encouragement, support and guidance from initial conceptualization of proposal to finalization of thesis in this form. Similarly, I am also grateful to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Benchaphun Ekasingh for her invaluable guidance from start to end to complete this study. Further, I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Methi Ekasingh, Dr. Sakda Jongkaewwattana, Dr. Tavachai Radanachaless, and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Attachai Jintarwat for their constructive comments and suggestions to complete this study and bring the document in this form. Additionally, I would like to express my appreciation to the external examiner Ajarn Phrek Gypmantasiri for his valuable remarks during my thesis defense and memorable lectures about sustainable agriculture.

I am thankful to senior friends Kumudu, Kailash, Bhim, Dopu, Bawani, Bista, Ha, Duc, Peris, Ms. Chatnapa Prommanon and Rasmey, my classmates Sieng, Rajendra, Yadu, Poch and junior friends Duc, Manjula, Hanh, Long, Soe Ma Ma and Wilawan for their cooperation and immense help during my study period. I would like to give my special thanks to Mr Wattana and Mr. Vorraveerukorn Veerajit for their kind support for the required technology for my study.

Thanks also go to Mr. Thanid Sermsri and Ms. Wanvilai Julapan for their kindly help to translate to Thai language in abstract.

I wish to thank all officers and staffs from Myanmar Agriculture Service for their help and providing facilities during my field survey. Thanks also go to all farmers for their enthusiastic participation in my field survey.

I would like to give my deepest thanks to Dr. Toe Aung (Director General, Department of Agricultural Research, Myanmar) and his wife Daw Tin Yee for their kind support and encouragement for my study. Then my thanks go to Daw Kyi Kyi Thet (Researcher, DAR) for her kindly supports by the valuable information about Yamethin district. My deeply thanks go to Sayama Daw Dolly Kyaw and Saya U Myo Kywe for their kind suggestion for my study.

With importance I would like to extend my sincere thanks and gratitude to the Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation (DTEC) of Thai government for providing me with prestigious scholarship for my study without which the pursuit of my degree would have been difficult. Moreover, I extend my gratitude to Ms. Woraluck Suteerawantana (Khun Om); who is one of the excellent staffs of MCC, for her superb arrangement of administrative works for study and for her eagerness to help even in her difficult time.

Finally, my greatest appreciation goes to my father, U Chit Htwe, who always gives his loves, inspiration, supports and my brother, Maung Maung Naing as well. I deeply wish to honor with this study to my mother (Daw Than Than) who gave her utmost love before passed away. My thanks go to my beloved husband U Mya Than for his encouragement and valuable support for my study and my son Hein Htet Zaw as well. Last but not least I would like to thank to all those who helped me to prepare this treatise, one or another way.
