ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to my supervisors, Assoc.Prof. Dr. Arunee Apichartsrangkoon of Chiang Mai University, Dr. Alan Bell, and Emeritus Prof.Dr. Dave Ledward of Reading University. Their technical expertise and support have been vital for my well being throughout my study.

This work was made possible by grant from the Royal Thai Government whose financial support is gratefully acknowledged.

I am grateful to Assoc.Prof.Dr. Renu Pinthong, Asst.Prof.Dr. Aphirak Phianmongkhol, Dr. Ampin Kuntiya, and Asst.Prof.Dr. Sasitorn Wongroung for their expert and valuable suggestions.

Thanks are also express to Mr. Stephen Pountney for his help in CSLM, Mr. Aklile Defaye, including the staff of Department of Food Biosciences at Reading University and Department of Food Sciences and Technology at Chiang Mai University for their patience and help.

I express my massive thank to my family especially my mother and my father (in memoriam) with deep gratitude for all their loving support.

At last, I also extend my thanks to my friends at Chiang Mai University and at Reading University, including my colleagues at Faculty of Science and Technology, Prince of Songkla University, Pattani campus for their encouragement and support.
