ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis could not have been achieved without the facilitation and encouragement of many people. I extremely appreciate everyone who has been concerned. First and foremost, Lect. Dr. Nopasit Chakpitak, my major advisor, who has advised, supported, and encouraged me throughout my academic program. His recommend and helpfulness makes me to overcome all difficulties and ambiguous during my thesis. I would like to express my thankfulness to him. I am also very grateful to the others members of my advisory committee, Asst. Prof. Dr. Napat Harnpornchai and Lect. Dr. Komsak Meksamoot for their comments and supports on this thesis.

A Special thank is extended to CMU Vice President of Research Affairs, Associate Professor Dr. Daoroon Kangwanpong, who is a project leader of the research project “Research Potential and Direction Survey for Setting Research Policy of Chiang Mai University”. Thanks also to all lecturers and staffs of this project.

My appreciation to the Department of Library Science, the Faculty of Humanities Chiang Mai University, and Office of the Higher Education Commission for providing financial assistance and permission that made this doctoral program possible for me.

Sincerely thank all CMU Deputy Deans of Research and CMU researchers for providing their time and valuable information.

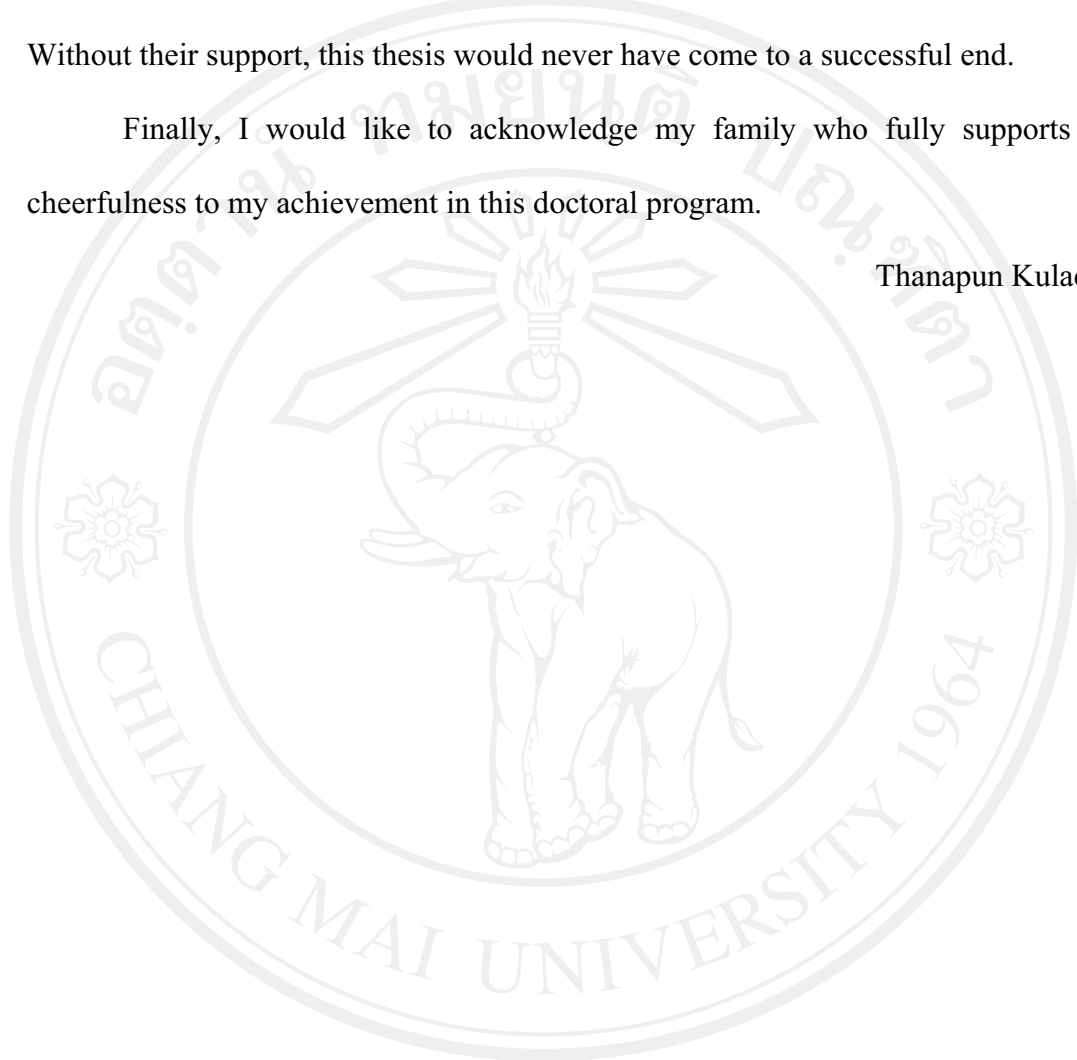

I also would like to extend my appreciation to all my friends including Assistant Professor Pranee Wongjamrus, Associate Professor Angsana Thongchai,

Dr. Kemakorn Chaiprasit, Ajan Piyanart Chatiketu, Ajan Gedganda Kongtawelert.

Without their support, this thesis would never have come to a successful end.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge my family who fully supports and cheerfulness to my achievement in this doctoral program.

Thanapun Kulachan
